To Whom it May Concern:

It is my sincere pleasure to provide a reference for Irving Ayash and Ideal Corporate Funding. I'm a small business owner who has been fortunate enough to work with Irving, during which time he and his personable office staff have demonstrated that they are highly competent experts in their field.

As a small business owner it was difficult to find the funding necessary for my business to advance in the global market place. Irving was able to utilize his sophisticated skill set to secure financing for my company, allowing the business to grow in ways which had previously seemed impossible. The deal was finalized successfully with the highest level of professionalism.

Irving Ayash possesses in-depth knowledge and experience in all aspects of financing, and his assistance during the overwhelming process of applying for financing has proved invaluable. Colibri Consulting, LLC wishes to thank Irving for his productive cooperation and reliable services.

Sincerely,
