To Whom It May Concern:

As former Director of Acquisitions for Howard Hughes's Nevada operations, it gives me a great deal of honor and satisfaction to highly recommend Irving Ayash for any appointment or assignment of responsibility.

For a very long time, I have been acquainted with Mr. Ayash on a day to day basis. I find him to be steadfastly a man of integrity and consistently diligent in carrying out his commitments. He has demonstrated the ability to work effectively in reaching and carrying out group decisions.

Based on my extended first hand observation of the character, talent and competency of Irving Ayash, I am pleased to give my utmost recommendation for him. I assure you that any trust placed in him will be rewarded with complete fulfillment of all your expectations.

Sincerely,

THOMAS E. MURRAY
